The Customers may place order both online and by phone. When the Customer places the order by phone, LIKI24 Customer Service may use call recording. In this case, the Customer is informed that the conversation may be recorded, and by continuing the conversation the Customer accepts this. The recording will automatically stop when the Customer initiates the call disconnection/closing or in the event he/she does not wish to continue the call.

The Customers must provide all information that would allow the Delivery Agents to carry out the Customer's assignment, including about the products to which the order relates. If required by the Retailer, to order certain products (e.g., prescription-only medication), the Customer may be requested to provide certain information, such as: age of the patient, copy of electronic prescription, copy of national health insurance card, copy of ID card, etc.

The Customer can choose between several types of delivery (e.g., fast delivery – within a few hours, scheduled delivery – within a specific time frame, postal delivery – typically within the next days, etc.). Delivery time estimation is indicative. It is not a guaranteed delivery time and should not be relied upon as such.

By filling the order and accepting these T&C, the Customer empowers and mandates the Delivery Agents (as identified and selected at sole discretion of LIKI24) to purchase of the products in person on his/her behalf, to collect them from a Retailer and to deliver them to the specified location. Under the Customer's mandate, the Delivery Agents undertake to purchase and/or deliver the products ordered by the Customer on the latter's behalf and according to his/her indications and specifications.

When using the LIKI24 Platform, Customers can only choose a single place of delivery in a single order. Where the medicines are collected is decided by Delivery Agents at their sole discretion.

6. PAYMENT

When placing an order, you (as a Customer) commit to pay, as appropriate, for the ordered products and for the provided services, including the Delivery Agents' Services. At the same time, you commit to refund or pay in advance the value of the ordered products.

LIKI24 can collect payments on account/on behalf of Third-Party Providers and facilitate the payment operations, therefore the payment made by you directly or indirectly to LIKI24 is equivalent to payments made directly to Third-Party Providers (including Retailers). LIKI24 can allow the possibility for Delivery agents to accept payment on their own account directly on its Platform.

If the Customer has records of any unpaid debts to LIKI24 or Third-Party Providers, all payments made by the Customer will be automatically firstly charged to cover the debts until full coverage, regardless of the Client's statements on the payment/order.

6.1. Prices and fees

The Customer must pay for the below products and services, as agreed upon during the order commencement:

- a. To the Retailers – the price of the ordered products supplied by them and, if requested by the Retailer, surcharge for orders below a certain value. Some Retailers may request separate additional fees (e.g., operational fees, for logistic services, etc.), which are additional to the price indicated on the Platform. LIKI24 shall inform the Customer about such costs prior to confirming the order;
- b. To the Delivery Agents – the fee for representation, delivery and other services provided by the Delivery Agents (this includes fees of the postal and other delivery services), which may depend on a type of delivery, distance and/or time of the day of the delivery, size of the package, delivery destination, etc.;

c. The fulfillment of the mandate services by the Delivery Agents for some Products is subject of additional services and efforts such as, but not limited:

- manual checking of the availability and pricing after order is launched, acquiring the Products in the supermarket or other Retailers with time-consuming shopping, additional handling, etc.

- Additional handling. Most Retailers are providing real-time availability of stocks and are preparing orders for Delivery Agent. If the Retailer is not providing this information and/or not preparing the order in advance than the Delivery needs to spend time choosing the Products, matching them with the one that are ordered by the Customer, checking the expiry dates and other information, packing the Products etc.

- Extended and remote areas. Collections and deliveries in such areas are charged differently. Increased fee for Delivery Agents services are implied because the Retailers might not have a point of sale nearby

- Self-service stores, supermarket acquisition. The self-service stores, supermarket acquisitions are considerable time consuming. This means that the Delivery Agent has to spend additional time to identify the products on the shelves, the queue waiting, parking and it results in higher costs.

- Advance payment. In case if the Customer is not choosing an online payment option and opt to pay for the ordered Product by cash after delivery the Delivery agent will need to pay for the Products in advance on behalf of the Customer from his own funds. This extra service requires from Delivery agents to have extra liquidity and results in additional risks of not receiving funds for the canceled or not collected orders.

These costs are necessary for Delivery Agents operating, as many factors can influence the mandate and shipping. Such costs and additional efforts fees are indicated expressly for each product and are marked accordingly and indicated on checkout page. Whenever possible, alternatively, Customer could be offered the possibility to opt for alternative products which are less delivery effort consuming and therefore should not involve these additional delivery costs.

The Customer is informed of the indicative total price when making the order. If the total price needs correction (the final total price is different from the indicative total price due to changes in the prices of products or otherwise), the Customer shall be informed accordingly with exception defined in art. 4.3 of this Terms.

As a way to share your satisfaction with LIK124 Services and the services provided by the Delivery Agents, you have a possibility to send tips. You (as a Customer) based on your own discretion are able to send tips that will be distributed between LIK124 and the Delivery Agents involved. Please note that the tips are neither expected nor required. You understand and agree that, while you are free to provide additional payment as a gratuity, you are under no obligation to do so.

6.2. Payment methods, payment services supplier

The payment may be made by bank card or in cash. When placing the order, the Customer is informed of the different payment options available in the territory where the service is requested.

In case of online payment, the Customer is informed of the indicative price on the website before making the payment. In case the Customer has to pay more or a certain amount of funds has to be returned to the Customer, this issue is settled with the Customer during or after the order completion.

The Customer can pay by card for orders that are mentioned on the LIKI24 Platform as allowing the payment by card. For card payments, the Customer must communicate the bank card data on the payment operator's website. LIKI24 does not store card numbers on its servers and can only view the last four digits of the card for technical facilitation purposes. The full information will be stored on the servers of the authorized payment service provider collecting the payments.

The processing of online payments is carried out by the payment processor and LIKI24 has no responsibility in this respect. The terms of the payment platform offered by a payment services provider legally authorized by the payment processor shall be complied with. LIKI24 undertakes no responsibility for the lack of authorization or license, and the payment processor is fully and exclusively responsible for this.

LIKI24 has the right, as a fraud prevention measure, to request a pre-authorization of the payment for products ordered through the Platform.

In case of cash payment, the Customer is informed of the final price before making the payment.

For cash payments, the Customer must pay on delivery of the product both the value of the products and the agreed fees for the services (cash on delivery). The Customer may not refuse to pay the agreed fees and the price of the ordered products. The Customer can only refuse the payment of the services fees if, by the date of the delivery, he/she has launched a complaint and received a response in the Customer's benefit.

The Delivery Agents shall take all necessary measures to collect the ordered products by paying for them from their own funds and to deliver the ordered products, based on mandate provided by the Customer through LIKI24 Platform. The Customer then shall compensate the funds spent to the Delivery Agents.

The payment settlement for the products is made by the Customer upon the receipt of the products from the Delivery Agent. In this respect, the Delivery Agent shall present to the Customer the document certifying the value of the purchases (e.g., the receipt). The payment of the products made by the Customer to the Delivery Agent excludes the Customer from any payment obligation to the Retailer. The Delivery Agent, as applicable, shall issue the tax document to the Customer (tax receipt/tax invoice, etc.) for the fees due for Delivery Agent's services.

6.3. Billing and invoicing

You agree to receive by electronic means the invoices issued by the Delivery Agent for the services of the Delivery Agents (which may be issued by LIKI24 or other company on behalf of the Delivery Agent).

The receipt for the purchased products, as issued by the Retailer, will be provided to you in the package assembled/delivered or by electronic means.

By accepting these T&C as a Customer, you expressly authorize us to communicate to you the electronic invoices, tax receipts or other tax documents, as applicable. When requesting the fiscal invoice, you are required to provide us with the data and information necessary to issue the invoice.

7. ORDER PROCESSING

As indicated above, LIKI24 acts as an informational services provider and an intermediary when processing your order. Below are the key issues related to the processing of your order that you need to be aware of.

7.1. Order processing flow

After you place an order and if we accept it, we will notify you of such acceptance ("Acceptance Confirmation"). The Acceptance Confirmation means that LIKI24 has received your order and started processing it.

When the order has been passed to Third-Party Providers, either directly to Retailers or to independent Delivery Agents, we will notify you of this and provide you with the details of the order and the Retailers and/or the allocated Delivery Agents ("Order Confirmation"). The Order Confirmation means that the Retailers and/or the Delivery Agents have received your order and started processing it and assembling the products for you. If Delivery Agents are involved, at this moment, direct contracts between you and the Delivery Agents for the representation and delivery services are concluded, and the service provision by the Delivery Agents commences. You can cancel your order free of charge only before we provide you with the Order Confirmation.

At the moment of order collection, the recipient (the Customer or any authorized third party) may be asked to confirm the reception of the products and services by signing the electronic or paper notice ("Collection Confirmation"). The signatory must check the integrity and adequacy of the products provided at the collection address before signing the collection confirmation. LIKI24 and Delivery Agents are unable to verify the authenticity of the Customer's signature.

If a Customer has any issues with the progress of his/her order, he/she may contact LIKI24 Customer Service through the methods made available on the LIKI24 Platform.

7.2. Change and Cancellation. Cancellation fee

The Customers may change their order details at any time before the order completion. Change of address for the delivery of products by the Customer equals to cancellation in the aspect of cancellation fee. Other changes in the order details are free of charge, except if LIKI24 Customer Service expressly notifies the Customer otherwise.

The Customers may cancel their orders at any time before the order completion. Based on the stage of order processing on which the cancellation was requested, the Customers may be requested to pay a cancellation fee:

- a. Before Acceptance Confirmation – no cancellation fee;
- b. After Acceptance Confirmation and before Order Confirmation – no cancellation fee;
- c. After Order Confirmation and before any products were acquired from the Retailers – cancellation fee of RON 20;
- d. After Order Confirmation and after products were acquired from the Retailers – cancellation fee equal to the whole order amount indicated in the Order Confirmation (total price of products and services ordered).

LIKI24 reserves the right to cancel an order at any time without having to provide a just cause (even after Acceptance Confirmation and Order Confirmation). In the event of cancellation by LIKI24 not related to any misconduct on the Customer's side, the Customer is entitled to receive back the amounts related to the order in question already paid.

7.3. Return of the products

You purchase the products directly from the Retailers, and the Retailers act as direct sellers of the products. Neither LIKI24, nor the Delivery Agents act in the Retailer's capacity, they only facilitate your purchase from the Retailers.

If the Customer wishes to return the product, the party with ultimate liability will always be the Retailer from which the purchase was made. Therefore, the issues related to returns should be settled directly with the Retailers. The return shall in any event be subject to the Retailer's return policies. The Customers shall send return requests, claims and any complaints directly to the Retailer from which the product was purchased.

In any event, the decision regarding whether a return is appropriate will lie with the Retailer in each case. If the Customer obtains a refund of the purchase price, the Retailer will decide how to make the refund (cash, credit card, voucher, etc.). Please be aware that the Retailers allow returns rarely.

By placing the order, the Customer obliges himself/herself to contact the Retailer and discuss the possibility to return the product and, if LIKI24 or Third-Party Providers are involved in such return, pay to the respective parties the costs associated with such return, if any.

If, at the time of cancellation, the products were acquired from the Retailers, the Customer may ask LIKI24 to intermediate and facilitate the return. In such case, in addition to the cancellation fee the Customer must pay the fee for the return service. If the Delivery Agent has been able to return the products, their value will be refunded to the Customer.

Also, to facilitate the processing of complaints, LIKI24 offers to the Customers the assistance of LIKI24 Customer Service. In the event of a dispute, LIKI24 may offer the first line of support.

For additional information on the scope, content and instructions for the returns, please contact our LIKI24 Customer Service.
